NOVEMBER UPDATE

Dear Friends,

Warm greetings to you in the name of our Lord and Savior, Jesus the Christ! We hope this short letter finds you well and wrapped up in the abundant love of God.

This year seems to be racing ahead on its own very fast timeline! Our ministry is officially three months old, and honestly, all we can say is that God is amazing. These months have been a season of intense learning, and above all, learning to trust that God is in control and has every detail planned out for us. Through it all, the vision is still very much alive, both in our hearts and in our day-to-day preparation. If you'd like a refresher, you can read our Vision Statement here.

In October we hosted two worship evenings in our home, and both times the refreshing of the Holy Spirit was real and significant. We can sense Him using these nights to prepare us for what lies ahead, so we'll be continuing on this course. Of course, as you know, the moment you start walking in obedience to the voice of the Lord, the devil and his cohorts slither out of the shadows and try to sabotage God's purposes. We experienced that firsthand recently, when he lived up to his name as "the accuser." Proverbs puts it so well: "Those eager to embrace evil listen to slander, for a liar loves to listen to lies" (Proverbs 17:4 TPT). But we won't give his playbook any attention. We are choosing, wholeheartedly and with fierce determination, to follow God's playbook instead.

We once again had the opportunity to minister (via Zoom) to some members of the Zion Prayer Church in India, lead by Ps Abothu Chinaraju. Their mission is to travel to surrounding villages and preach the gospel and baptize those who make a commitment to Christ. Part of this outreach also involves giving the local people each their own Bible (Tamil). God has blessed us and we were gratefully able to contribute to this mission! As much as we are a part of this, you too are now directly involved in getting Bibles into India through your support of us. Thank you!

Meanwhile, the Lord has been so good to us in providing income streams to cover our living costs. Sharon is still teaching every week, the home watch business is carrying on, and I've started delivering Amazon parcels: 474 parcels over 867 miles so far! We praise Him for His faithfulness, and we're reminded of David's words: "I was once inexperienced, but now I'm old. Not once have I found a lover of God forsaken by him, nor have any of their children gone hungry" (Psalm 37:25 TPT).

Online, we keep growing steadily as we share the Good News through social media. Sharon recently launched her new account, Inherited Truth, and it's off to a wonderful start. She has worked like a Trojan, and that hard work is truly paying off. The content is excellent and gives honor and glory to God in beautifully creative ways. If you're not following her yet, we'd love for you to join her there! (Facebook & Instagram). The A Voice for Worship accounts also keep encouraging people and building them up in their faith walk.

And one more exciting bit of news: I've started writing a new book! It's called The White Stone and the Secret Name: Discovering the Power, Purpose, and Promise of Names in Scripture, and I'm really looking forward to having it available in the very near future. It all began as a page of notes, on one of those mornings when a thought simply won't leave you alone. You make your coffee and sit down to do something sensible and predictable (I am, after all, a creature of habit), only to find yourself writing in the margins instead. The thought was simple: names matter to God. Once I started looking, I found them everywhere. God names Himself. He names the stars. He renames people at the turning points of their lives. He gives His Son the Name above every name. And He promises each of us a new name, written on a white stone, that no one else will ever know. Watch this space!

Thank you again for walking alongside us, for every prayer, every word of encouragement, and every way you partner with us in this work. Every day seems to bring a fresh opportunity to taste the fruit of trusting the Lord, and through it all, your prayers have meant more than we can say. It strengthens us so much to know we have real, faithful friends carrying us before the Father. Please know that we are praying for you too. We are all fellow laborers together in this beautiful kingdom of God.

We pray the blessing of God over you and your family!

Sincerely,
Waldo & Sharon
